There's a new Alabama Art Magazine on the web. It is a terrific online magazine on arts, music, culture and entertainment around the state. It's ARTS in Alabama, the brainchild of Gwen Bishop, formerly editor of Lake Martin Living magazine. The June issue of ARTS is now online and it's a great read! Gwen has created an interesting, first-class publication comparable to the glossiest of printed magazines. She's such a supporter of the arts that I hope everyone will become a supporter hers and her new e-magazine (See link below).
